Our Lady of Light MINISTRIES

A New Year's Resolution!

Often, people ask what they can do to help here at Our Lady of Light. There are a number of ministries available. Being that our parish is a small one, it is quite simple to get involved. You just need to pray and have faith that you can join in!

At this time most of the ministries are in need of extra helping hands. The more people that step forward, the easier it makes it for the Ministry Leaders, to "get things done".

Please pray about this, and think about how you can give back to your parish that gives you so much.

Please!

Remember in your prayers

Maria Mullholand, Greg Covey, Diane Tooley, Baby Anthony, The Hauner Family, Irene, an elderly woman, Irma Pierce, and Arlene Stolz.

Pray for the repose of these souls

Paula Saksa, Christine Hauner, Fred Butchko, Bill Unger, Ruth Cope, and Randin Rulenz.

Gus' Mission for the Homeless

The Latest Topics!

Christmas Pageant

Parents, please have children who wish to participate in the pageant to the Parish Hall, no later than 4:00 PM on Christmas Eve. This will allow us to have time to get into costume and line up.

Giving Tree for Gus' Mission

Once again we will be helping the homeless of the east county through Gus' Giving Tree. Take a tag off of the tree, purchase the item(s) on the tag, and place the item(s) in the blue bucket located in the parish hall. Please do not leave items in the back of the church.

Christmas Novena Mass Cards

These beautiful Mass cards are available at the back of the church. Please be sure to submit your intentions prior to the 9 AM Mass on Christmas day!

Sunday classes will continue through the holidays, but there will not be classes on Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, or New Year's Day. We welcome all children from pre-school through high school. To register, please contact Gloria White.
