From Fr. Steven

Dear Parishioners,
As many of you have already become aware, the Bishop has appointed me to serve as Pastor of Our Mother of Confidence Parish in University City, as of July 1.

I have accepted the Bishop's appointment. My human desire was to remain Pastor at Our Lady of Light. The Priesthood requires obedience to the Bishop, our Pastor here in the Roman Catholic Diocese of San Diego. I appreciate your numerous well wishes, and sharing of heartfelt feelings and support. I am touched, and so is our Bishop, that many of you are contacting him in an effort to ask that he re-consider this move. I continue to trust in the wisdom of our Lord's will under the mantle of Our Lady.

In the meantime, we have many unfinished projects and projects that we just started. Moving forward with the help of the members of our parish family, there is nothing we can't accomplish. Please contact the office or myself if you desire to assist us with your skills.

We have attached a link to a Novena to Our Lady of Light which began May 1, to drive out the Darkness of Covid-19 and end the Quarantine https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A6s-MQRTAOw&feature=emb_logo

Hopefully we will all be together soon at our parish, in celebration of the Holy Mass. God Bless.
Fr. Steven
