A Message from Father Rick

God's invitation for us to attend the holy sacrifice of the Mass every Sunday is like the king's invitation to his guests to attend his son's wedding banquet. Will you give God's invitation importance so as to try to set aside your personal interest or schedule to be with the Church to celebrate the Holy Eucharist?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus compared the Kingdom of Heaven to a wedding banquet of the Son of the King. The king sent out invitations, but the invited guests insulted the king not only by ignoring his invitation but by even harming and killing the servants. Such evil acts of the invited guests would not go unpunished.

The second part of the parable tells us that the king's invitation was sent out to everyone. God's offer of grace and salvation is now offered for all. Those who would accept God's invitation, however, must "dress up properly," meaning to say they must conform their lives to the Will of God. Let us pray that as we respond to God's invitation and as He pours out His grace and blessings upon us, we may conform our lives to His Divine Will.

Catholic Inquiry

Join us for an informal hour in which we share our stories and ask our questions about the Catholic faith. Whether you are just beginning your Christian journey, are returning after a time away from the church, or have been attending Mass regularly but never received the sacrament of Baptism, Confirmation, or Eucharist, this is a great place to start. We will be meeting this Wednesday, October 14 at 6:30 PM in the Parish Hall. Please contact Gloria for more information 619-672-1637 or email at gloria@ourladyoflight.church

Religious Education Volunteers Needed!

Help needed! As we adjust to the current circumstances and seek alternate methods of catechesis, we need an adult with computer and social media skills, and of course, a heart for Jesus and sharing His love with our kids! Consider sharing your ideas and energy to help keep our children engaged and enriched in the faith. Can you help us with this challenge? There is no experience necessary. Children's Religious Education/Sacramental Preparation
