A Message from Father Rick

"Every religious and prominent group wanted a piece of Jesus. They all wanted Jesus to fail and to be ultimately gone from their sight. But with every challenge and entrapment they posed, the more Jesus was able to show their miserable state and their frauds. The Gospel this Sunday reminds us of the two greatest commandments and that knowledge of the commandments is not enough. The better way to understand these two greatest commandments is to see them from the point of view of Jesus' love of God and his love for us. Jesus' love of God was truly personal and intimate. The Gospel tells us that the love of the Father to his son is unconditional. When Jesus was baptized a voice was heard, "You are my beloved son in whom I am well pleased." Jesus through his teachings and parables showed us what true love really is. True love cannot be silenced nor can it be buried.

Many Ongoing Projects Require Many Hands

As we continue to care for our aging Parish property, please pray on how you are able to contribute with your God given talents.

All Souls Mass Intentions

Please remember your family during our Mass for All Souls. Special envelopes for your prayer intentions are available at the back of the Church.

Catholic Inquiry

In these particularly trying times, we may want to ask, "Why does God allow evil to exist?" Even Saint Paul says in Rom 7:19 "For I do not do the good I want, but I do the evil I do not want." The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that after they sinned. Adam and Eve became "afraid of the God whom they had conceived a distorted image." Join us Wednesday evening at 6:30 PM in the Parish Hall as we discuss the consequences of sin and God's loving response: "where sin increased, grace abounded all the more" (Rom 5:20).

Religious Education Volunteers Needed!!!

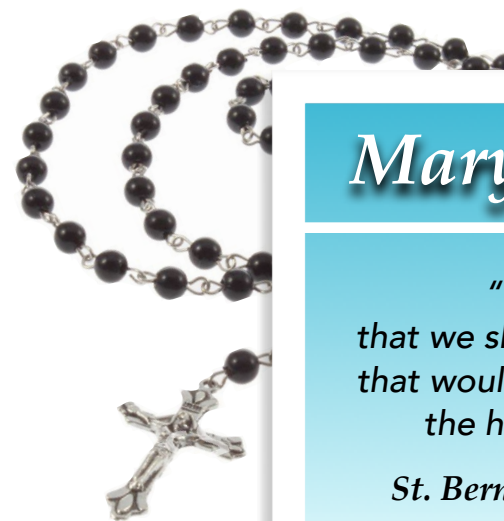

Please give prayerful consideration to volunteering in our Children's and Adult faith formation programs. We are in need of adults to share the Good News of the gospels! No experience necessary, training will be provided. Please contact Gloria if you are interested in helping with this program. 619-672-1637 or gloria@ourladyoflight.church
