A Message from Father Rick

The celebration of Our Lord as King of the Universe marks the end of the Liturgical season in Ordinary Time. Next week the Liturgical season of Advent will begin. Hail to our Lord as the King of the Universe. Indeed we ought to make Jesus our ultimate ruler and king everyday of our lives and not just this week. The church wants to emphasize the importance of doing what is essential for our salvation and that is by doing good for the least of our brothers and sisters. In the end God judges all of humanity according to the universal law of love. Every normal human being regardless of race or religion ought to know and understand what is good and evil, what is good for a fellow human being and what is not. Let us strive to grow then in our love and compassion especially to our less privileged brothers and sisters. I pray for us to always have the courage to extend a compassionate hand to the needy.

Every year we celebrate Thanksgiving on the last Thursday of November. This year our gathering as family or community may be limited due to the restrictions. Our gratitude to God however, should not be diminished or lessened. We all have reasons to be thankful to God and to one another. On Thanksgiving Day, let us together lift up our spirit of gratitude to God and greet one another...HAPPY THANKSGIVING.

Little Blue Books...for Advent and Christmas

Sunday, November 29 is the First Sunday of Advent. As in years past, the Altar and Rosary Society is providing the Six-Minute Meditation booklets for you to incorporate into your Lectio-Divina during the 43 days of Advent and Christmas. These booklets are available at the back of the church. Supply is limited, so don't wait. God Bless you!

Lector Workbooks

This is the last weekend to pick up your new workbook. They may be found in the back of the church. After this weekend they will be in the sacristy.

Mary's Corner

"Let us then,
whoever we may be,
bless forever the divine goodness which gave us Mary as our Mother,
our spiritual nurse,
and our mediatrix."
