A Message from Father Rick

There are so many uncertainties in our present life. In this Sunday's second reading, Saint Paul reminds us of the most uncertain reality that could affect our lives. It is the uncertainty of the fate of our loved ones who have died. At the time of Saint Paul, many believed that Jesus would be coming back in their life time. People waited, some died, and Jesus never came. Saint Paul assured them that they don't have to give in to doubt. He said, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep." Let us be consoled by these words of St. Paul. Jesus will come at an hour we least expect. The parable of the wise and foolish virgins should remind us to be always ready. Like the wise virgins they brought with them extra oil. They were ready for the unexpected. When it comes to preparedness, we cannot even expect the charity from our fellow travelers. Hope is something we cannot give, we can only teach and inspire others to have it.
