A Message from Father Rick

Witness one of Jesus' explosive moments, the cleansing of the Temple. Jesus could not bear the sight of the desecration of the Temple by the authorities and the business opportunists. It takes a great courage and readiness to face the "powerful" in the society. At one point someone will have to stand against their lies and injustice. Jesus was ready to be rejected, to be despised, and eventually be unjustly condemned to die. Jesus did what he did to show us the way – the way to truth and life. Because of Jesus' action we saw the business tables turned over. Such tables should not be used to take advantage of the miseries of the poor, rather they should be used to share and build solidarity and communion. At the table of the Eucharist, Jesus humbly offers himself as eternal food to everyone. Let us partake of the Holy Banquet that Jesus offers us, and receive the gift of life and salvation.
