A Message from Father Rick

The stories of Jesus' appearances to his disciples are a handful compared to the parables and miracle stories during his ministry. These stories, however, tell us the most important realities that would lead the apostles to realize their new way of life and their mission. Forty days with his disciples before ascending to the Father might be too short, but they are enough to learn lessons about missionary works. We are reminded that it also took forty years for the people of Israel to journey from Slavery to freedom. They also had to learn some "theology" while in the desert and while spending some years at Mount Sinai. Jesus made sure that the disciples understood the gift of peace that he bestowed upon them. It is Peace that the world and anyone else could not give. Only Jesus, having conquered death can offer such gift of peace. The same gift of peace is offered to each one of us during the celebration of the Mass. The peace that Jesus offers us is more than just peace of mind or any security, but it is a way of life where every fear is vanquished by the power of God's grace and blessing.
