A Message from Father Rick

There are two important feasts in the calendar of the church that are coming up this week. On November 1st, the feast of all the Saints, and November 2nd, the feast of all the faithful departed. The feast of all the Saints is meant to remember and honor those who are in heaven with God, and there are myriads of them. There are those who are not yet beatified and canonized by the Church. Some may not be even known to us, yet by the virtue of the lives they lived and their love for God, they are now enjoying God's presence in Heaven. We pray that they will intercede for us and for our needs. The commemoration of All Souls of our faithful departed on the 2nd of November is meant for us to remember and pray for our faithful departed and also to pray for those who have no one to pray for them. It has also been the Church tradition to visit cemeteries and offer flowers and prayers for them. All these two great feasts remind us of our communion with the Saints and those who have died. We are not separated from them, but rather share the same destiny, the Kingdom of God in Heaven. Here at our Parish, we will be praying for our Faithful departed each day for the whole month of November.

The Latest Topics!

Pancake Breakfast Partnership...November 14

Calling all Our Lady of Light Parishioners...your help is needed in November with the monthly pancake breakfast. We need 6-7 people to help cook and serve up sausage, eggs and pancakes. There will be a Kitchen Chief there to guide you and the Town Hall treasurer to handle the taking of money. You will need to arrive at 7:45 AM and you will be finished by noon. If you are able to help with this community event please email descansosue@gmail.com

World Mission Sunday

Last Sunday was World Mission Sunday. Please pray about, and respond, as to how you can support the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. If you did not receive an envelope, please pick one up in the back of the church. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith would like to thank you in advance for your support.

Mass Time Change

Beginning this Thursday, November 4, the 6:00 PM Mass time will be moving up to 5:00 PM followed by Adoration/Benediction.

Hospitality...Help needed

With folks returning to Mass, we are in need of help in the hospitality area (coffee and treats) before and after Sunday Masses. If you are able to help with this ministry please contact Lori Schlumpberger at 619-445-1498.

All Souls' Day Remembrance

All Souls' Day is this Tuesday, November 2. This is a day of prayer and remembrance of the faithful here on earth, for the souls of those who have died. Envelopes are available to list the names of those that you would like to honor as part of this remembrance. These names will be placed on the altar.

Advent begins Sunday, November 28.
