A Message from Father Rick

The story of Elijah and the widow at Zarephath is a story of hope and trust. Elijah, being a man of God, knew what was going on throughout the land. The smell of death was everywhere. There was famine. Elijah came to the land not to hasten the death of the woman and his child, but to test the depths of her hospitality. Elijah knew what to do from the very beginning, to bless even more those who would bless him with a cup of water and a piece of bread. This beautiful story reminds us to be hospitable and generous even if it means sharing the last drop of what we have to live. The widow hesitantly shared with Elijah her last bread and oil, and in return God surprisingly blessed her abundantly. Let us make it our life's mission to be hospitable and generous even if sometime we are more in need than others. God is always merciful to the cheerful giver.
