A Message from Father Rick

We might be tempted to believe that our times are filled with more uncertainties compared to any period in history. This might be true, since unlike in the past where news was limited, today we can already have a sense of what is happening around the world. On a global scale, things are uncertain, and on a personal level uncertainties are real too. In the midst of all these, we are trying to make sense of our faith in God and in the words of the Holy Bible. Today's passage in the Gospel of St. Luke reminds us how the people of God continued to wait for the fulfillment of God's promise. They called it, the promise of a Jubilee Year, a year of favor for those who are in bondage. Our longing for freedom might not be in the list for Jubilee favors, but it is real. We pray that the whole world will truly be freed from the bondage of the covid 19 pandemic. Let us join all our prayers, asking Our Father for the gift of true healing around the world.

The Latest Topics!

A Life Well Lived

On Saturday, January 29, we will be saying our final goodbyes to Cathy Oberreuter. Cathy, along with her husband Wayne and their family have been parishioners here at Our Lady of Light for many years. Each year Cathy was instrumental in the annual Labor Day BBQ by securing the live music and helping to emcee the day's activities. The funeral Mass begins at 11:00 AM with a reception following in the Parish Hall.

Church Cleaning Schedule

If you are on the church cleaning team, please pick up your new 2022 schedule in the back of the church.

Mass Intentions

Please use the envelopes located in the pews at church. Include, along with the date requested, your contact information (phone number works best), so if that date is not available you are able to be contacted and choose an alternate date. You may also email your intention(s) to rkshull54@gmail.com or call 619-473-1086.

Lectors Wanted and Needed

The liturgical ministry is in need of lectors to bring the Word of God to our fellow parishioners. Proclaiming the Word of God is truly a service to the Church. Over the last year or so we have had lectors move away or step down from helping with this ministry. Please pray about this, and if you are able to help with this ministry please contact Robin Shull at 619-473-1086 or rkshull54@gmail.com

Donation Acknowledgements for Income Tax

Anyone who is requesting a written acknowledgement for their donations to Our Lady of Light Parish, please contact the Parish office in writing and place your request in the collection basket or mail slot up at the Parish hall. Please include in your request your phone number and address. The deadline for us to mail the letters is January 31. Thank you.

Tithing Envelopes

Tithing envelopes, beginning March 2022 and going through February 2023, have been ordered. If you do not want envelopes please contact the church office.
