A Message from Father Rick

Jesus did very well in the past two Gospel readings. His disciples began to believe in him when he changed gallons of water into wine at the wedding in Cana. People spoke highly of him when he read the scroll of Isaiah and said at the end, "today this scripture passage is fulfilled in you hearing." This Sunday's Gospel however, when he spoke about people who were not Jewish and yet received favor from God, his listeners could not take it. They were so angry that they wanted to kill. His own people could not accept that God could bless other people who belonged to other nations. The Jews had the exclusivity of God's calling and favor and no other nations. This would change. Jesus came not just for the Jews, but for all people, specially for the lost and the sinners. Throughout the centuries, the Church may have instituted a lot of laws and requirements for believers, but looking back Jesus only required a couple of things; true repentance and to believe in Him. Let us listen to Jesus and welcome Him into our lives and accept that others too are blessed.

The Latest Topics!

Mass Intentions

Please use the envelopes located in the pews at church. Include, along with the date requested, your contact information (phone number works best), so if that date is not available you are able to be contacted and choose an alternate date. You may also email your intention(s) to rkshull54@gmail.com or call 619-473-1086.

Lectors Wanted and Needed

The liturgical ministry is in need of lectors to bring the Word of God to our fellow parishioners. Proclaiming the Word of God is truly a service to the Church. Over the last year or so we have had lectors move away or step down from helping with this ministry. Please pray about this, and if you are able to help with this ministry please contact Robin Shull at 619-473-1086 or rkshull54@gmail.com

Donation Acknowledgements for Income Tax

Anyone who is requesting a written acknowledgement for their donations to Our Lady of Light Parish, please contact the Parish office in writing or by email at office@ourladyoflight.church. Place your request in the collection basket or mail slot up at the Parish hall. Please include in your request your phone number and mailing address.

Tithing Envelopes

Tithing envelopes, beginning March 2022 and going through February 2023, have been ordered. If you do not want envelopes please contact the church office.
