A Message from Father Rick

What is true happiness? And how can we ever achieve this most elusive reality of life? We must have heard that contentment is the secret of happiness? But how can there be contentment when not having enough causes so much pain and suffering. This must be what Jesus was trying to teach us in the Beatitudes. There is joy and blessedness in hunger, tears, and even in insults if one is able to see beyond. We can draw three important things necessary to have contentment and happiness. First is detachment or letting go. There should be a point where we realize that our desire to achieve something is beyond our grasp and the act of surrender to God's power begins. This is the second important aspect of true happiness, humility, which according to St. Teresa of Avila is the truth about ourselves. We do not hide our limitations or achievements, nor claim what we do not have. Lastly, St. Paul beautifully wrote in his first letter to the Corinthians (1Cor. 12). "Love never fails". Only those who truly love can find true happiness and blessedness.

Happy Valentines to All.
