A Message from Father Rick

Saint Paul reminds us, "...in the Lord your labor is not in vain." Therefore, we should not be discouraged, rather we persevere, in all we do for the Lord. Working for the Lord does not only refer to our volunteer services in the church, but to all we do at home or outside, as long as we are doing and serving for the Love of God, not expecting any payments or reward. Jesus in this Sunday's gospel reminds us to be fruitful in our lives and our fruits must be for the good of others and not just for a show as hypocrites do. We know in the past the Lord had given us plenty of opportunities to do good things, some we reluctantly served and others we totally dismissed. We know the Lord will put us more in a situation where there will be opportunities to serve. We pray that we will always have the strength to choose what the Lord wants rather than what we want. Next week the Church will begin a new season of Lent with the marking of the sign of the cross on our foreheads with ashes. May this mark of ashes truly remind us who we are and what we are called for.
