A Message from Father Rick

How can we discern and understand God's calling? God calls certain individuals for a purpose and for a reason. Prophet Isaiah was called to be sent to God's people; to bring God's message of blessings and repentance. Jesus calls his disciples to follow and stay with him and later to be sent for a purpose. God is not necessarily for the righteous nor for the saints. After all no one is born a saint. God purified Isaiah from his wickedness and purged his sins. Jesus assures his new disciples saying, "Do not be afraid." Our calling may not be as lofty as the call of Isaiah, or as dramatic as the call of Simon, but God certainly has called us out of who we were to who we are today, and He is constantly calling us every single day to become who we are today and to be what God wants of us tomorrow. The more we graciously accept His calling the more we are strengthened and nourished. May we generously respond to God's call and faithfully do whatever His Will for us.

The Latest Topics!

Mass Intentions

Please use the envelopes located in the pews at church. Include, along with the date requested, your contact information (phone number works best), so if that date is not available you are able to be contacted and choose an alternate date. You may also email your intention(s) to rkshull54@gmail.com or call 619-473-1086.

Lectors Wanted and Needed

The liturgical ministry is in need of lectors to bring the Word of God to our fellow parishioners. Proclaiming the Word of God is truly a service to the Church. Over the last year or so we have had lectors move away or step down from helping with this ministry. Please pray about this, and if you are able to help with this ministry please contact Robin Shull at 619-473-1086 or rkshull54@gmail.com

Donation Acknowledgements for Income Tax

Anyone requesting a written acknowledgement for their donations to Our Lady of Light Parish, please contact the Parish office in writing or by email at office@ourladyoflight.church. You may also place your request in the collection basket or in the mail slot up at the Parish hall. Please include in your request your phone number and mailing address.

Tithing Envelopes

Tithing envelopes, beginning March 2022 and going through February 2023, have arrived. They will be available for pick up in the back of the church in the next couple of weeks.
