A Message from Father Rick

One thing that God does not expect from us is to bring up neighbors in our prayers before him and expect God to punish the neighbor, or at least take our side. How many times do we feel we are on the right side? Even if we are, that is the least of God's concern. When Jesus was asked to help two brothers divide their properties between them fairly, he refused. We know what Jesus could have said, "Go sell all your properties, give the money to the poor, and follow me." In other words, we should not make it our mission pointing out the sins of others and condemning them. Jesus did the opposite. He went in search for the condemned and allowed them to experience God's Loving Mercy. Jesus is all about, finding the lost, giving hope and life to those who are condemned.
