A Message from Father Rick

What is the important lesson that Jesus teaches us in the story of the Good Samaritan? It is a lesson that should run deep into the very life of every Christian. Jesus is telling us that true love cuts across all racial and cultural prejudice or even religious practices. By making the Samaritan the hero of the story Jesus goes beyond the prevailing mentality of his time that Samaritans were despised and abhorred by the Jews. The scholar of the Law would not even mention the name Samaritan when asked by Jesus, "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" The scholar said, "The one who treated him with mercy." Our neighbors are not only those close to us physically, like our family or our community. Our neighbors are not only those who belong to our circle of friends, those whom we share hobbies and interests, or those whom we have made friends with in our neighborhood. Our neighbors are not only those who are kind or good to us. To our Lord, any man or woman who is in need is our neighbor. Behaving like a true neighbor means not just calling 911 in times of emergency, but also means risking one's life in the name of true love and concern. Becoming a true neighbor means having a compassionate heart to someone in need, withholding any negative judgment and responding to the person's immediate need. A true neighbor does not mean always giving to what the person is asking but more of looking after the person's well-being.

The Latest Topics!

Peter's Pence Collection

The Peter's Pence collection unites us in charity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. Pope Francis encourages us "to open our eyes and see the misery of the world...". You may return your envelope to the collection basket during Mass or drop it in the mail slot at the Parish hall. You may also donate online through the Diocesan website.

BBQ Update

There are many ways you can help to make this year's BBQ a huge success. We are in need of cash donations...any size business, organization 501c(3) groups and individuals can contribute. Generally, these donations are tax deductible. We are still in need of someone to be the lead and head up Grandpa's Attic. If you are able to fulfill this need please contact our chairperson Barb. Another area in need of a lead is the Door Prize booth (gift baskets) a couple of people have volunteered to put the baskets together and set up the booth, but workers are needed!

Vacation Bible School...July 11-15

Our Lady of Light is excited to offer Vacation Bible School (for ages 4-12) the week of July 11-15. Registration and volunteer forms may be found in the back of the church. The registration fee is $25 for the first child and $20 for each additional child. If you have any questions please contact Cathy Williams at 619-955-3597.

BBQ Raffle Tickets...are here!

Raffle tickets are available in the back of the church. Please take an envelope or two to sell to family and friends. If you have questions please contact Robin Shull at 619-473-1086.

Pro-Life News

With great jubilation we celebrate the overturning of Roe v. Wade! We give all the glory to God and thank Him for his mercy and grace! We remain in the battle, as we continue to help change hearts, minds and pro-abortion laws in California. We need each and every one of you to be engaged in some way in the defense of Life. Please contact us to see how you can be involved. You may contact Fr. Rick or Pro-Life Coordinator Pat Hansen.
