A Message from Father Rick

A father wanted his son to grow up wise and learned so he sent him to a monk to teach him the ways of life. Few days had passed and the son was surprised that his new teacher had not spoken a single word to him. After a week the restless son thought of finally complaining. He said to the monk, "I was sent by my father here to learn from you, but after staying for a long time I haven't learned anything yet." The monk replied, "If you don't admire my silence, you won't admire my words. If you don't learn first to appreciate silence; you will not have the chance to learn at all." While it is important to go out and serve the Lord among the poor and the sick, it is also equally important to recharge oneself by spending moments of silence before God. This is what Mary is doing, listening to Jesus. It is in those moments of silence before the Lord that Jesus speaks to us. It is in the silence before God that we can reevaluate and rediscover the meaning of our life and the work we are doing. In silence we will find God's strength and guidance. "Be still and know that I am God." (Psalm 46:10)

Peter's Pence Collection

The Peter's Pence collection unites us in charity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. You may return your envelope to the collection basket during Mass or drop it in the mail slot at the Parish hall. Please return your donation by the end of this month. You may also donate online through the Diocesan website.

BBQ Update

There are many ways you can help to make this year's BBQ a huge success. We are in need of cash donations...any size business, organization 501c(3) groups and individuals can contribute. Generally, these donations are tax deductible. We are still in need of someone to be the lead and head up Grandpa's Attic. If you are able to fulfill this need please contact our chairperson Barb. Another area in need of a lead is the Door Prize booth (gift baskets) a couple of people have volunteered to put the baskets together and set up the booth, but workers are needed!

Mass Intentions

Please consider having a Mass said for a friend or family member, either living or deceased. There are many dates available. You may use the envelopes found in the pews inside the church or you may contact Robin Shull using the information found in the Organizations and Contact Info section of the weekly bulletin.

BBQ Raffle Tickets...are here!

Raffle tickets are available in the back of the church. Please take an envelope or two to sell to family and friends. You may turn in monies and ticket stubs at any time. If you have questions please contact Robin Shull at 619-473-1086.

Pro-Life News...Update

As a result of Roe v. Wade's overturn, the decision on abortion will return to each state's legislature. Now is the time for each pro-life person to get to know their states representatives who are running in 2022, and where they stand on abortion. It is our responsibility as faithful Catholics, to do whatever we can legislatively to change the laws, and the elected representatives who support the culture of death in California. For more info contact Pat Hansen.

Mary's Corner

"If you ever feel distressed during your day, call upon our Lady, just say this simple prayer: 'Mary, Mother of Jesus, please be a mother to me now.' I must admit, this prayer has never failed me."
