A Message from Father Rick

Jesus appointed seventy-two other disciples in our Gospel to be part of the workers of the Kingdom of God. There will never be enough workers in the Kingdom. We need ourselves to be counted among the seventy-two disciples today and continue the work of evangelization. Aside from the usual work we have every day or every week, we also must have to account that we are also called to be part of God's Kingdom as evangelizers. We might reason out that we do not have enough time or opportunity to bring Jesus into the consciousness of others, but God will surely make a way. What is important is that we have the will and the desire to spread the Love of God. Most of all, it is important to remind ourselves that there are many things more important than money or having every material thing in life. Healthy fear of God, respect of oneself and others, integrity, honesty and truthfulness, and unwavering trust in the Lord are far more important than anything else. Let us pray that our way of life will bear witness to our faith in Jesus Christ.

Peter's Pence Collection

The Peter's Pence collection unites us in charity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. Pope Francis encourages us "to open our eyes and see the misery of the world...". You may return your envelope to the collection basket during Mass or drop it in the mail slot at the Parish hall. You may also donate online through the Diocesan website.

BBQ Update

There are many ways you can help to make this year's BBQ a huge success. We are in need of cash donations...any size business, organization 501c(3) groups and individuals can contribute. Generally, these donations are tax deductible. Each of you know someone who can help. Start by making a list of friends, local businesses, or any type of organization that may be able to donate items for our door prize baskets. Items may be in the form of actual merchandise, gift certificates, and even cash. Begin making your list and contact our chairperson Barb with any questions or ideas.

Pro-Life News

With great jubilation we celebrate the overturning of Roe v. Wade! We give all the glory to God and thank Him for his mercy and grace! We remain in the battle, as we continue to help change hearts, minds and pro-abortion laws in California. We need each and every one of you to be engaged in some way in the defense of Life. Please contact us to see how you can be involved. You may contact Fr. Rick or Pro-Life Coordinator Pat Hansen.
