A Message from Father Rick

My dear Brothers and Sisters in one week our most anticipated event will be happening; the 85th BBQ. This is the time; we will not be only hosting for our own parishioners, but for all those who come from everywhere. This is a tremendous gift that has been handed down to us from previous generations, and hopefully we can also pass this on to the younger ones. Let us pray and thank those who have made this great tradition and event possible. Many of them have already joined our Creator including Mr. Flavio Carrillo who died few weeks ago. We can never thank them enough. In the same manner, let us be truly grateful to our present team of volunteers and team leaders. Thank you for sharing your talents, time, and resources. Our Lady of Light, Mary Our Mother, looks down from Heaven with a big smile, for like her, you too have traveled the country roads of Descanso to make our annual BBQ a success. For many of us the road leading to our service to the Church and our brothers and sisters is difficult and narrow. We only hope that all our humble loving service will bring us closer to God who in end will say to us, "Welcome my trusted and faithful servant."
