A Message from Father Rick

We are God's greatest treasures and Jesus lived and died just to let us know how precious each one of us in the eyes of God. The parables of Jesus in today's gospel readings tell us about God's desire for humanity to come back to Him and for those who are lost to be found. God never gives up on anyone of us no matter how lost we are. He is willing to pay the price just to find one lost soul. His Son Jesus paid the price for God's victory even after death. This is the message that we preach and live up to every day of our lives; that God so loved humanity that he gave his only begotten son that whoever believes in him may not perish but have eternal life. On another note, let us be truly grateful to God for the success of our 85th annual parish and Descanso community BBQ. Thank you too for the hard work and dedication of our faithful parishioners. Our parish is truly blessed by the generosity of everyone. I was sad, I could not join the clean up last Monday. My knee was acting up again. It's better now after two days of rest.
