A Message from Father Rick

The Church in the coming days celebrates two of the most beloved feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8; and the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12. It is only appropriate that as we prepare for the celebration birth of the Lord we are being reminded of a person, whom God had prepared for all eternity to be the bearer and the mother of His Only Begotten Son. That person is Mary. Mary is indeed blessed among all women. She had nothing to do to prepare herself, except to do the will of God. She did not have to worry about forgiveness or repentance of her own. Nonetheless, Mary shared with us and with the whole of humanity the pain and sorrow of having fallen in love. Her anxiety was incomparable when for three days she and her husband Joseph went looking for the lost boy Jesus. While all of us will struggle to gain the upper hand against our sinful nature, Mary is spared from sin. For this reason Mary is given to the Church and to each of us, to be the intercessor and guide to follow Jesus. Throughout the ages Mary continues to manifest herself in various nations and cultures. How can we reciprocate Mary's love and generosity for all peoples? Like her, let us strive to do the will of God and pray unceasingly with Marv. Viva. Maria!
