A Message from Father Rick

Among the great Catholic Saints, three are celebrated in the month of October: St. Therese of Lisieux on October 1st, St. Francis of Assisi on October 4th, and St. Teresa of Avila whose feast will be on October 15. All these three saints were also proclaimed doctors of the Church which means that their live, teachings and writings contribute significantly to the theology and doctrine of the Church. The whole body of their works and teachings can help everyone to follow Christ and to live lives of faithfulness. They were not born saints or lived saintly live, at least before each of their conversions. Each of them had their moments of change of heart. Saint Francis was a troubadour, an entertainer or musician and lived an easy wealthy lifestyle. Saint Therese compared herself to a grain of sand on a foot of a mountain of holiness. Saint Terese lived a life of nobility; high class and aristocratic family. Saint Francis later would refuse to be ordained a priest feeling he was not worthy. Saint Teresa started the reform of the Order of the Carmelites, so that the sisters or nuns could have a genuine monastic life. Let us pray that inspired by these saints' lives and teachings we will be able to live our Christian life always seeking the Will of the Father and walking on the path of true humility: "Our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, but on love with which we do them." St. Therese
