87th Annual BBQ It's in the books!

A huge thank you to everyone who helped to make the 87th BBQ such a success...don't forget to attend the BBQ follow up meeting next Saturday following the 5:30 PM vigil Mass. It is potluck, so please sign up in the parish hall. We will be serving some of our world famous beef and other dishes provided by the parishioners. It is a BYOB, so bring whatever beverage you prefer. We hope you will be able to attend as we go over this past BBQ and talk about things that worked well and areas where improvements might be made. Going over these items now insures we don't forget before the next BBQ comes around.

Final totals will be available in the next few weeks.

Please!

Remember in your prayers

Pray for the repose of these souls

Charity Bonds, Eileen Briesse, Dottie Sparks, Butch Paddock, Debbie Benson, and Corey Comperatore.

A Message from Father Rick

With Father Rick away it is once again time for facts about the Catholic church...

Did you know...

*The pope is protected by the Swiss Papal Guard. Wearing uniforms designed by Michelangelo and commonly armed with halberds, they are capable of using heavier weapons if needed. Each member is Catholic, male, and Swiss, and must complete military training in Switzerland. They must demonstrate good conduct and be at least five-foot eight in height. In extreme circumstances, they are expected to guard the Holy Father with their lives. The Swiss Papal Guard is the oldest active military unit in continual existence since 1506.

*The pope does not live in Italy; he lives in Vatican City, which is a country within Italy.

*Between John Paul II's election to the papacy in 1978 and his death in 2004, more than 17 million people attended his weekly audiences in Rome.
