A Message from Father Rick

The Church celebrates three great and familiar saints this month; first, St. Therese of the Child Jesus, October 1st; second, St. Francis of Assisi, 4th of October; and St. Teresa of Avila, 15th of October. What do these saints have in common? They are giants of our faith in terms of their teachings and influence. Both St. Francis and St. Teresa are founders of religious orders which until now continue to draw followers from everywhere in the world. St. Therese herself was a Discalced Carmelite, a religious order founded by St. Teresa of Avila in around 1562. All these saints are outstanding in humility, patience, and endurance to suffering and pain. Their influences continue to reach far and wide. They all have one thing in common. They have answered the call of Jesus and followed him like a little child. They did not allow the many noises of the society to sway them away from the Lord. They remained faithful to prayer and steadfast in their loving service. Today, Jesus continues to call us to become like little children in his sight. Some are called to be faithful in marriage. Some are called to priesthood and religious life. We are all called to continue to pray so that whatever calling we have embraced we remain faithful.
