A Message from Father Rick

Waiting is an integral part of human life. Jesus was not exempted. He waited patiently for thirty years for the right time. When that moment came, He wasted no time. Immediately, He went and called disciples who would become his associates in the great task of preaching and spreading the Kingdom. They were ordinary people made extraordinary by the grace of God. Today in our Gospel reading, Jesus performed His first miracle by turning gallons of water into finest wine. Something that probably more than amazed the people and his Disciples. They were all thrilled at the power of Jesus. Wine in the bible is more than just something to drink. It is a powerful symbol and manifestation of God providing joy and drink for the people. The presence of Jesus will always bring joy and fulfillment. This Gospel reveals to us the place of Mary in the Church. She is indeed a powerful intercessor. Let us pray that we will persevere in following the Lord and become true witnesses of the Gospel. May the liturgical Sundays of the Ordinary time become for us extraordinary opportunity to stay with the Lord and therefore grow in our love of God and our neighbors.
