A Message from Father Rick

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called the Good Shepherd Sunday. Coincidentally, this Sunday is also the "World Day of Prayer for Vocations" and also commemorates Mother's Day. This year is the 62nd World Day of prayer for vocations. Pope Francis, before he died, wrote a message for this occasion, he said, "On this, the 62nd World Day of Prayer for vocations, I wish to extend to you a joyful and encouraging invitation to become pilgrims of hope by generously offering your lives as a gift. A vocation is a precious gift that God sows in our heart, a call to leave ourselves behind and embark on a journey of love and service." Our model and guide in responding the call of God is Jesus Himself. When the right time came he left Nazareth, His native place, and embarked on a journey to sow the seed of God's Love. In Today's Gospel Jesus is the Good Shepherd keeping us all safe into eternal life. He is also calling to shepherd our brothers and sisters, especially those who have been entrusted to our care and protection. May we become true and faithful shepherds after our Lord. We pray, therefore, for all our shepherds in the church, for our new Pope, our bishops and priests. We also pray for more vocations to priesthood and religious life.
