A Message from Father Rick

From the conception and birth of Jesus to the stories of his death and resurrection we know more about God than ever before. The books of the Bible both the old and new testaments tell the nature, characteristics, and attributes of God. What is there to know about God? Saint Augustine said, "If you have understood that what you have understood is not God." That means God transcends whatever we can know about Him. God reveals himself to us through the Bible, through Jesus, and even through the world around us. If we can understand something about God, it is because He himself has given us tools and resources to know him. God lives among us and chooses to reveal Himself to us. Jesus said, "When the spirit of truth comes, he will lead you to the complete truth." No. 237 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "The Trinity is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the 'mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God'. On this feast of the Most Holy Trinity let us allow the Holy Spirit to teach and to lead us to know and to Love Him even more.

Labor Day BBQ...help needed!*

Things are shaping up for the 88th Annual BBQ on Sunday, August 31. We are in need of volunteers for the afternoon shift in the kitchen. This year sign-ups are online, or you can still sign up in the Parish hall. To receive a link email Daniel Nagle at danieldescanso91916@gmail.com. You can sign yourself and others up. Daniel can also sign you up if you like. As previously mentioned a hardcopy of the sign-ups has been posted in the hall, and you may sign-up that way as well. Without you, the volunteers, this BBQ fundraiser cannot happen.

Father's Day Novena*

Time to remember those men in our lives either living or deceased who mean so much to us. There are envelopes in the back of the church for you to remember those very special individuals. You may place your envelope in the collection basket or drop it off in the mail slot at the Parish hall. Envelopes will be placed on the altar and prayed over during the entire month of June.

Catholic Chat...Sunday, June 29th*

Please join us up in the hall on Sunday, June 29th following the 10 AM Mass for lively discussion on all or anything Catholic. Hope to see you there. Thank you and God bless!

Mass Intentions...many dates available*

A beautiful way to remember someone in your life either living or deceased. Or you may just know of someone who just needs some extra prayers. Please use the envelopes found in the church pews.
