A Message from Father Rick

There is no secret to open God's mercy. As Jesus drew near the City of Jerusalem, he wept over it, saying, "If this day you only knew what makes for peace." What are we going to pray for? Let us ask the Lord Jesus to fill us with his Holy Spirit and with a sincere desire to seek the Lord and his Kingdom first above all else. The parable tells us that the Lord comes to reward his faithful servants. Jesus' parable adds an unexpected reward for those who have faithfully served and watched for the master's return. When the master finally arrived home from the wedding feast at a late hour of the night, he did the unthinkable for his servants who were present to welcome and let Him in. He then puts on a servant's apron and tells his servants to be seated at his own banquet table. Once they are all seated the master then personally waits on them and serves them with his own rich food and drink (Luke 12:37). Jesus' parable turns the world's way of thinking upside-down. The master rewards his faithful servants by serving them himself with the best he has to offer - a royal feast fit for a king and his loyal subjects. Let us prepare ourselves to partake of the Lord's Sacred banquet.

The Latest Topics!

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary...Holy Day of Obligation

Friday is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses will be at 8 AM and 7 PM.

Weed Whacking...your help needed!

The bank area between the street and the pit area needs to be weed whacked. If you can help with this please contact Fr. Rick or Chelsie Green. We thank you in advance for helping with this.

Mass Intentions...many dates available

A beautiful way to remember someone in your life either living or deceased. Or you may just know of someone who just needs some extra prayers. Please use the envelopes found in the church pews.

When filling out the envelope please print legibly and include your phone number. We always try to give you the date that you request, but it is not always possible. Thank you and God bless!

Annual Catholic Appeal

We are getting ready to send in our donations for this annual collection. Donations will be sent to the Diocese in the next couple of weeks. Envelopes are available in the back of the church.

Grandpa's Attic...Keep bringing in donations!

Time to gather up your donations for Grandpa's Attic. Drop off days are Saturdays, Sundays, and Mondays. The flyer in last week's bulletin outlined what will and will not be accepted. Any questions... please contact Charlene Phelps @ 619-318-4721.

Parish Opportunities

Since we are a Parish of volunteers please know that there are many ways that you can help. The parish grounds are in constant need of upkeep whether it be pulling a few weeds, raking leaves, blowing off walkways, weed whacking and more. There are also indoor opportunities such as helping with the weekly church cleanings. The more folks that step forward to help with these chores the better. Think and even pray about how you might be able to help in one of these areas.

Raffle Tickets

Tickets for the 88th Annual Labor Day BBQ are available in the back of the church. Take some and sell them to friends and family. After selling place stubs with $ in the collection basket or mail slot.
