A Message from Father Rick

It is Advent. The Church reminds us to be ready and prepare for the coming of Christ. Jesus came for the first time and only few people recognized Him. He will come again in the final days. When that day comes, He will appear as He is, God in all His glory. Only God Himself knows when the actual second coming will happen. For the mean time we continue to commemorate and celebrate the day of His first coming through the liturgical celebration of Christmas. Through the Sundays of Advent we prepare ourselves especially through prayer and charity, striving to recognize Jesus who is ever present in our midst. Jesus comes to each one of us in a most personal way. We encounter Him in our life of prayer and in our sincere life of service to our poor brothers and sisters. We also encounter Jesus in the sacraments such as the Holy Eucharist, Confession and Anointing of the Sick. Through the weeks of Advent, we joyfully prepare ourselves and strive to serve the Lord in our Brothers and Sisters. I pray that as you actively participate in our Sunday Advent liturgies, you and your family will truly experience the blessings and the love of Our Lord Jesus Christ.
