A Message from Father Rick

There is a lot more to Christmas than what we hear and see around these days. This is what the second Sunday of Advent is all about. Jesus reminds us to really prepare the way of his coming from inside. John the Baptist is introduced to us as someone who prepared the way of the Lord. He did this by few words and tons of graphic images and actual witness; where he lived, how he dressed, what he ate, and what he longed to achieve. John said, "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals." John the Baptist lived his life with great humility. In this way, we too can cooperate in the plan of God; to live a humble and simple life. Like John the Baptist, let us find time to be in the desert, not necessarily the actual desert, but a place where we can be alone with God and pray for a simple yet meaningful celebration of Christmas.
