A Message from Father Rick

On this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus continues his farewell discourse. Jesus assures His disciples neither to be afraid nor worry about his impending departure. His departure is only temporary and that the disciples will not be left orphans. He will be sending the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. The same Holy Spirit is very active in our lives and in the life of the Church today. We need to welcome Him and be open to His transforming power. There is a need also to allow ourselves to be transformed by His presence in our lives. Let us not be afraid. Let us allow the Holy Spirit to transform us into becoming new persons, new family in Christ. This is our Easter Joy, Christ dwelling in us through the power of the Holy Spirit empowering us to be true disciples of the Lord. The great feast of Pentecost is coming. Let us pray more earnestly that the Holy Spirit will truly transform and renew us and enkindle the fire of Love in our hearts. The power of darkness will never stop casting shadows of uncertainties in the lives. Jesus assures us, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you."

Mary's Corner

"The veneration of the Virgin Mary has accompanied the path of the Church from the beginning; Marian feast days began to appear already in the fourth century: in some the role of the Virgin in the history of salvation is exalted; in others the principal moments of her earthly life are celebrated."
