A Message from Father Rick

Jesus tells more parables, comparing the Kingdom of God to a Pearl Merchant who sacrificed all to buy a dream pearl, and a treasure seeker who found a buried treasure in a field. He went and sold everything he had so he could buy the field and own the treasure. Simply put, one cannot have something precious or valuable without giving up something in return. The more valuable the dream, the more sacrifice one has to make. Success in life cannot happen without giving up anything. Living out our Christian life is like being a pearl merchant or being a treasure hunter. It involves total dedication and commitment. Yet, in the end Christian life is more than just possessing human treasures that lose value through time. The value of gold, for example, goes up and down. The value of our Christian Faith remains even more valuable after we die. When a Christian, who treasures Christ, dies, he or she will even shine brighter. At the moment of death, there is only one thing that matters. It is not the possession of wealth or any treasures itself, but what we have become while having Christ in our lives. Have we become better human persons? Have we become more loving and loyal to one another? May the Lord bless your commitment to be true to Him in word and in our actions.

*Our Lady's Many Ministries...

There are many areas in and around our parish facilities that could use your help and TLC...don't be shy...this is your Parish. *During Mass...you can help with the collection or even help by bringing up the gifts to the priest. See the need just get up and do it, your willingness to fill in will be appreciated. Also, lecturing is an area in need. It really is easy and a great way to give back. We are always ready to welcome new members to the lector family. *Outside Work...there is always weed whacking to be done.
