A Message from Father Rick

Peter received not only the greatest compliments of his life, but also something that made him the pillar of the Church. He received the "keys of the kingdom of heaven." What Peter received was pure Grace. Humanly speaking Peter was not worthy and nothing he could do to make himself deserving of the great favor from the Lord. His fellow disciples must have envied him. Many things in life and even life itself are God's gifts. Some gifts we feel we deserve but many we do not. Some people may seem to receive more than others but the reality remains; there will always be corresponding responsibility to whatever people have received. Later, Peter would pay a very painful price for his words and for what he had received from the Lord. He was tortured and then crucified head down. What is important in our Christian life is to recognize the gifts of God and to be responsible for the use of such gifts. The greatness of Peter was his humility and readiness to call upon the Lord's help whenever he found himself drowning. Every time we say Amen in our prayers and after receiving Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, we also say with Peter, "You are the Christ, The Son of the Living God." And, Yes, correspondingly, Jesus is also giving us great responsibility as His disciple.
