A Message from Father Rick

Following the Lord does not mean we have to jump and walk on water as Peter did and he failed. We see Peter often failing and coming to grief as a result of his impulsiveness. In the Gospel last August 6, Feast of the Transfiguration, we saw Peter immediately suggesting to the Lord to build three tents at the mountain where Jesus was transfigured. Obviously Jesus said NO. They had to come down, back to Jerusalem. Now he wanted to follow the Lord by walking on stormy waters. His faith was not strong enough to overcome the power of nature. Good thing for Peter, Jesus was there to forgive and save him. Many failures in our Christian life happens when we act or decide on impulse and emotional eagerness. Like Peter who in his moment of failure immediately called on the Lord for help, we too should not hesitate to ask the Lord for help. Our failures, like Peters, should make us love the Lord more deeply and trust in Him more devoutly. What is important is to realize that the Lord will come to our rescue even if sometimes He doesn't seem to be there.
